Members Only meeting

Hello fellow Lions and thanks to all those who made the changeover night a memorable occasion. Particular thanks, of course, goes to outgoing President Tony for organising all those little extra things that go to making the night special. I believe the Kiama High School Band performed magnificently and the Club should be proud that we have been of some assistance to them over the years. This is the spirit of Lionism.

It was great to see past member John Porritt and a good contingent of local Service Clubs members. Five members attended Minnamurra Lions Changeover night on Tuesday 25th. It was their 14th change-over and Kiama Lions was instrumental in their formation. Incoming President Geoff Shoard will be ably assisted by his new secretary Roger Milburn and treasurer Kevin Bolack (again!). For those that know Geoff, the audience were aghast with the ceremonial 'lopping' of his pony tail (rats tail?). It remains to be seen whether this 'lopping' was staged. Gerringong Lions have their Changeover this Thursday night. I will be an apology; however several members will be attending.

On behalf of the new Board I thank you for your votes of confidence and promise you we will be working very hard to live up to your expectations. We had our first Board meeting last Thursday night and I'm sure the enthusiasm will last the whole term.

This Thursday night the meeting will be a 'members only' evening where the Board will put forth proposals for the forthcoming year and beyond. Topics will include finance, caravan/markets and social requirements. Hopefully there will be free discussion and advice from members with some endorsement at the end. The remainder of the evening will be our usual format.

Finally, Meeting Attendance Etiquette;

1. If a Member is NOT attending he/she needs to apologise by ringing the Club's phone number (0449 523 040). That is we assume you're attending unless told otherwise.
2. If a member is bringing a guest (e.g. wife/partner/friend etc.), the Club needs to know by ringing the Club's phone number (0449 523 040).

A fine may ensue for infringement of the former case. Embarrassment may ensue for infringement of the latter. Hoping for a good attendance Thursday. Pres. Geoff

NEWSLETTER

Edition 6th June listed Bruce Lanham amongst the Lions member remembered recently at the Convention. I sent a copy of Ki-Lines to Robin Lanham and below is her reply:

Karen

Thank You for being so thoughtful. Bruce was very proud to be a Lion and much of his life and career was about helping others.

Thank the Lions on my behalf for the taking the time to remember Bruce. Thanks again for your kind thoughts

Regards
Robin

EDITOR: Thought this was funny considering recent political developments and lead up to the election. Lions, please take it in the manner that it is meant, A little light hearted humour!!!!!!.

A woman in a hot air balloon realized she was lost. She lowered her altitude and spotted a man in a boat below. She shouted to him,

"Excuse me, can you help me? I promised a friend I would meet him an hour ago, but I don't know where I am."

The man consulted his portable GPS and replied, "You're in a hot air balloon, approximately 30 feet above ground elevation of 2,346 feet above sea level. You are at 31 degrees, 14.97 minutes south latitude and 100 degrees, 49.09 minutes west longitude.

She rolled her eyes and said, "You must be a Liberal Coalition supporter".

"I am," replied the man. "How did you know?"

"Well," answered the balloonist, "everything you told me is technically correct. But I have no idea what to do with your information, and I'm still lost. Frankly, you've not been much help to me."

The man smiled and responded, "You must be a Labour supporter."

"I am," replied the balloonist. "How did you know?"

"Well," said the man, "you don't know where you are -- or where you are going. You've risen to where you are, due to a large quantity of hot air. You made a promise you have no idea how to keep, and you expect me to solve your problem. You're in exactly the same position you were in before we met, but somehow, now it's my fault."

PRICELESS!!

Subject: Re: We need help to keep Funky Kids Radio on air

Hi Ian and Robert - Here are some details:

A Melbourne family has developed an alternative entertainment option for families who want an alternative to screen-based technologies.

Funky Kids Radio is an internet streamed radio station for children that plays a broad diversity of kids music blended with adult music and accessed through computers and mobile devices. They have audiences globally, with the strongest markets being Australia, USA, The United Kingdom and Canada. Funky Kids Radio plays music ranging from the Wiggles, to 'K-Indie' artists like The Mudcakes, Kate Rowe and Electric Lunchbox and the programming features "Quiet time" music after lunch and stories on-the-hour which have been a great hit. Funky Kids Radio has enjoyed a wonderful relationship with Children's Audio Theatre and broadcast their stories which have provided some wonderful traditional stories to the programming.

The project has been self-funded and run by the family for the past 18 months but has become too greater a demand on the family. "It has pretty much taken one parent out of action a lot of the time and the basic APRA licence we are broadcasting under does not allow any income generation," says Rachel. "That is why we have launched a Pozible crowd-funding campaign this month to generate some support to help keep us streaming." Families can pledge and receive rewards including broadcast of special birthday stories and programming their own shows and organisations can support the campaign and receive low cost advertising packages in a growing medium. Links to the Pozible campaign can be found at www.funkykidsradio.com.au.

Thanks so much for your support. kind regards Rachel

The Reading Action Program Makes a Lasting Impact

For the past year, Lions have addressed the global illiteracy issue by promoting early reading and improved access to education in their communities. With over 2 million volunteer hours and 6 million people served as part of the Reading Action Program in 2012-13, the Lions Clubs

International Board of Directors is extending the campaign for a minimum of 10 years. That means Lions can continue focusing projects on literacy and education, as well as collaborating with partners to expand resources and volunteer opportunities that help children and adults everywhere build brighter futures. Read the Lions Blog to see how Lions have participated in the Reading Action Program.
